

Naturally Cooling

TENCEL® is made from the natural cellulose found in wood pulp. This fibre is economical in its use of energy and natural resources, and is fully biodegradable.

TENCEL® offers unique moisture management through its fibril structure - absorbing 50% more moisture than cotton.

A benefit of its moisture management is that it is also a natural antibacterial.

KEY BENEFITS

---

Ability to absorb moisture

Antibacterial

Great option for sensitive skin

Strong and durable

Soft handle

Airpermeable

Natural